

STATINTL

HILLSDALE, MICH.
NEWS

e. 8,341

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page //

APR 8 1964

Date:

Jackson Has 5
Special Talks

A varied program of lectures for the 1964-65 Jackson Town Hall Series was announced today by Mrs. F.R. Ingram, president of the organization, sponsored by the women of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Meredith and Rini Willson in "An Hour of Mirth and Music" will headline the series starting Oct. 29. Mr. Willson is the author of "The Music Man," one of the all-time theater favorites and a Broadway hit.

Baroness Maria von Trapp will appear Dec. 3. "Around the World with the Trapp Family Singers" will bring a story of adventure, bravery, color and humor to the audience.

"Confessions of an Antique Dealer" will be the subject of the Jan. 21 program presented by Dr. Charles Gaupp, an authority in his field.

Kermit Roosevelt, a member of the Central Intelligence Agency for many years, will appear on Feb. 18 for a lecture entitled "CIA and the American Way of Life."

Closing the series on April 22 will be the television news commentator, Richard C. Hottelet.

These lectures are presented at the Michigan Theater in Jackson on Thursday mornings at 10:30.